

September 26, 1937. Brno. Masaryk Grand Prix. Ernő Festetics driving his Maserati. The Count driving the 3-year-old Maserati 3015 finishes 8th, three laps behind the winner Rudolf Caracciola driving a Mercedes W 125. The superiority of the German Silver Arrows (Mercedes-Benz and Auto Union) is overwhelming. Not even Tazio Nuvolari driving an Alfa Romeo using all his virtuoso driving skills can keep up with the Germans.
